

Spare Parts Policies and Conditions

- 1- Spare Parts prices and quantity are changeable, and the quotation will be provided in the invoicing date.
- 2- Customers may request spare parts initial estimation throughout, our customer care center hotline number (920034888) the customer request will be escalated to Parts Department, throughout our sales point, or via NMC official websites.
- 3- Electronic parts can be neither replaced nor returned, because these parts are programmed on a particular VIN. Rare parts order can be neither replaced nor returned according to article No.11.
- 4- Inspection should be done before replacing any of the Electrical parts (non-electronic parts) or mechanical parts, and original invoice must be provided along with parts.
In addition, inspection in this case required labor charges to be applied depending on parts type especially the part which has been installed in local workshops in this case we must assure that, there are no mistakes which lead to break the parts according to Article No.16
- 5- Non-electronic parts are eligible for refund during two days from the invoice date provided along with the original invoice. the part condition must be sealed with the same original packing, not used and same condition as it on purchasing date.
- 6- The company will perform and commit its official estimations prices for 7 days from the date of these estimations.
- 7- Spare parts price estimation is not official order and to consider it as an official order customer should pay 50% fifty percent from the total amount as in advance down payment (deposit).
- 8- Customers can cancel the parts order during one working day starting from the down payment date both cash receipt and the estimation should be provided to proceed with the cancelation request. Nevertheless, the order will process and the deposit amount will not be refunded.
- 9- In case parts ordered were arrived and the customer did not come to collect the parts within 14 days when informing him officially (phone call or SMS), the company will have the right to release the committed parts.
- 10- The company can decline any parts order in the below scenarios:
 - Parts that are VIN-related may have different availability and supply timelines due to factors such as unique manufacturing requirements or compliance with regulatory standards.
 - Parts unavailability in manufacturer company due to vehicle age, raw material shortages or global supply chain issue.
 - Cars imported from outside GCC specifications.
 - In case the vehicle or the parts are discontinued from the manufacturer.
 - In case the vehicle or the parts are banned from the manufacturer.
 - In case the vehicle ownership is not proved by the customer who orders the parts, especially for ordering parts related to Operation systems, and security & safety systems. Include but are not limited to (Key, remote controller, engine PC, Operating Engine).
- 11- Rare parts orders are required agreement with the customer. The agreement contains a specific price and Leadtime period for the part. Include but are not limited to (Parts are linked to the VIN, parts are made to a particular vehicle, parts with unique specifications and features, Accessories, parts made for the vehicle's color, parts made for environment and safety likewise, Airbag and Freon, parts over 10 years old and parts which sourced from other and unauthorized imported dealers).
- 12- Refund Procedure: In case the spare parts cancellation request was approved by the company, the customer has to provide original invoice and his identity photocopy for process refund amount cheque purposes. In consideration, this will take a minimum of one week from the date of providing the full required documents and approval by the company.
- 13- Spare part which has been sold throughout our sales point will be under warranty for 12 Months or 20.000 Km whichever comes first from the date of invoice.
- 14- Battery warranty is subject to the stickers in each battery according to the batteries agencies' policies.
- 15- Mostly service parts include and are not limited to (Brakes, Dick-Front Wheel Brake, Blade Wiper, Clutch, Filters, Ribbed Belt, and all parts mentioned in the warranty booklet are included in the most used parts rule) not covered by warranty, only in manufacturer fault cases.
- 16- The company may decline any part return request that does meet the refund and return terms and conditions.